GERMAN VESSEL UNLOADS ARMS

Federals Now Have Large Supply of War Material.

WASHINGTON IS SURPRISED

American Authorities Made No Effort to Prevent the Delivery of Supplies to the Mexican Government, but Do Not Understand Why the Steamship Company Changed Its Attitude.

Mexico City, May 28.—It is reported on high authority that a large shipment of ammunition had just been received, making two shipments in less than two weeks delivered to the federals. The government is now well supplied with ammunition to carry on its campaign against the Constitutionalists.

Washington, May 28.—Ammunition consigned to the Huerta government in Mexico, which had been kept in the hold of the German steamship Ypiranga since the American occupation of Vera Cruz, was landed at Puerto, Mex.

Consul Canada at Vera Cruz cabled this information to the state department and it also was reported from other sources to the war department that arms consigned to Huerta had been landed at Puerto, Mexico, from the German steamer Bavaria. Both steamers belong to the Hamburg American line.

Rear Admiral Badger cabled the navy department from Vera Cruz that the steamship Ypiranga discharged her cargo at Puerto, Mex. The dispatch added:

"No specific information regarding character of cargo discharged, but every indication Ypiranga landed her entire cargo of war materials." No effort to prevent the delivery of the ammunition consignments was made by officials of the United States. Puerto Mexico being an open port and the United States having agreed to a suspension of hostilities during the mediation of the Mexican imbroglio at Niagara Falls.

Could Have Stopped Landing.

It was made plain at the state department that the only possible way to have prevented the shipments of arms through Puerto Mexico would have been to seize the custom house there, as was done at Vera Cruz.

This would have been an open violation of the suspension of hostilities and would have disrupted mediation at once.

The reported delivery of these cargoes aroused considerable speculation, in view of the fact that arms on board the Hamburg-American ship Kronprinzessin Cecilie consigned to Huerta through Puerto Mexico several weeks ago were turned back on orders of officials of the steamship company at Havana.

At that time the Bavaria was reported to be en route with her cargo, and the announcement was made from the same source that the ammunition would not be landed upon orders of the steamship company.

Why a different disposition of the cargoes at this time was made government officials here did not appear to understand, but the suggestion was made that arms on the Kronprinzessin Cecilie originated from an American source.

Robert Lansing, counsel of the state department, made public the reports concerning the delivery of the ammunition to Huerta, Secretary Bryan being absent at the time the information reached Washington. Mr. Lansing made no comment, except to say that there was nothing this government could have done to intercept the shipments in view of the peace conference.

MAY APPOINT COMMISSION

Another Rumor in Circulation That Huerta Will Resign.

Vera Cruz, May 28.—Reports from private sources say that President Huerta has committed himself to turn over the government to a commission composed of members of the various factions in the republic. He also is said to have agreed to relinquish power to any successor which such a commission might select.

The report says further that Huerta's determination has already been communicated to the Mexican delegates and probably directly to the Washington government.

In the capital the belief is held that the Mexican peace delegates will be named to represent the Huerta faction on the proposed commission and that they may return soon to Mexico City.

BURNED WHEN AUTO UPSETS

Owner of Car Pinned Beneath the Wreckage.

Fresno, Cal., May 28.—The body of Hardy Weakley, a rancher, burned almost to a crisp, was found under the wreckage of his automobile on a highway near this city. Nearby lay Walter Robinson, unconscious. Weakley's machine had upset and burned with its owner underneath.

SAYS MELLEN'S STORY IS TRUE

George F. Baker Examiner by Solicitor Folk.

FRIEND OF LATE J. P. MORGAN

One of the Chief Powers in Wall Street Affairs Is Said to Have Informed the Commerce Commission Attorney That Testimony Given by the Former New Haven President Is Correct.

New York, May 28.—George F. Baker, one of the chief powers in Wall street affairs and regarded as the closest personal friend of the late J. Pierpont Morgan and therefore believed to know the details of many transactions of the Morgan firm in connection with New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad affairs, was examined by Solicitor Joseph W. Folk of the interstate commerce commission, preliminary to appearing on the witness stand in Washington. William Skinner, who has been closely identified with the affairs of the New Haven for some years, also was examined.

Although Mr. Folk would not discuss the testimony it was learned from an authoritative source that Messrs. Baker and Skinner corroborated the story told by Charles S. Mellen, former president of the New Haven, when he appeared at the hearing conducted by the commission in Washington, as far as it concerned their own individual actions.

Mr. Folk came to New York from Washington primarily to make arrangements with Francis Lynde Stetson, representing J. P. Morgan & Co., for an examination of the books, accounts and memoranda of the banking firm relative to the New Haven and its subsidiary companies. The arrangements were satisfactorily completed and Mr. Folk returned to Washington.

Mr. Folk said a number of important witnesses had signified their intention of appearing before the commission next Wednesday, but he refused to name them.

The examination of Mr. Baker and Mr. Skinner was conducted behind closed doors in an uptown hotel. The conference between Mr. Folk and Mr. Stetson was held in the same room.

MANUFACTURERS IN SESSION

First National Foreign Trade Convention Assembles.

Washington, May 28.—With high government officials and officers of the largest manufacturing concerns in the United States on the program the first national foreign trade convention began a two days' meeting here.

The convention will talk over the problems confronting the manufacturer in an effort to extend American commerce still further, and interpret, as nearly as they can, the effects the Underwood-Simmons tariff and the new currency law have had already on business conditions here and abroad.

MURDERER PROBABLY INSANE

Kills Railway Employee and Then Commits Suicide.

Deadwood, S. D., May 28.—While Don Williams of this city, brakeman on a Northwestern passenger, was standing on the Newell depot platform Ted Warner, armed with a rifle, shot him dead. No words preceded the shooting. Warner then ran to a nearby building, where he shot himself. Warner, who just came to Newell from Minnesota, is believed to have been insane.

GOVERNOR FEEDS SUPPLIANT WOMAN.

Springfield, Ill., May 28.—A personal appeal by Mrs. Max Smith of Chicago and her three small children won a pardon for Smith, sent to the penitentiary last January upon conviction of a serious offense. After granting the pardon Governor Dunne found the woman and children had eaten nothing for several hours. He took them to the executive mansion for breakfast and then sent them to Chicago.

AUTOIST KILLED BY TRAIN

Three Others Seriously Hurt When Engine Strikes Machine.

Janesville, Wis., May 28.—James Cox, fifty years old, was killed and Mrs. Cox, Mrs. Edward Borchard and Miss Tillie Olsen, all of Beloit, were seriously injured when a Chicago and Northwestern train struck the automobile driven by Cox on a grade crossing here.

SIR A. CONAN DOYLE.

English Author Fears Civil War in Ireland.

DOYLE FORESEES CIVIL WAR

English Author Says Ulstermen Are Not Bluffing.

New York, May 28.—When Sir Arthur Conan Doyle on his arrival here was informed that no general uprising had followed the recent passage of the home rule bill he said:

"That is splendid. So far, so good. But the question is, how long will it last? I do not believe there will be a sporadic uprising, or small outbreaks, but if anything further does happen it will be serious. I tell you those men are not 'bluffing,' as you say. It will be so serious as to amount practically to civil war, or it will be nothing at all. The men of Ulster will never give in to the idea of an Irish parliament."

HEAT AND STORMS CAUSE TEN DEATHS

Six Die in New York and Four in Philadelphia.

New York, May 28.—The heat wave which for two days past had sent the mercury in this city and vicinity to unwonted heights for May was broken by a violent thunder and wind storm.

Three deaths are attributed to and several persons were hurt by falling timbers. The wind reached a maximum velocity of eighty-four miles.

Two deaths are attributed to the heat and there were more than a dozen asphyxiations.

At Uniontown, N. J., the pupils in the public school became panic stricken when the wind tore off the roof of the building. In the crush a boy pupil was so seriously injured that he probably will die.

At Philadelphia, a freak electrical storm set fire to buildings at the house of correction at Holmesburg and private residences in the city. A forty-six mile wind accompanied the storm.

Four deaths were reported as being due to the heat and several persons were injured in runaway accidents during the thunder storm.

BEER IN NECESSITY LIST

Laundry Is Luxury Under New North Dakota Express Rates.

Devils Lake, N. D., May 28.—Why beer is given an express rate in the second class, being considered a necessity, while laundry is placed in the first classification, with the luxuries, is a question which has been put up to the state railway and warehouse commission by A. L. Johnson of Devils Lake, president of the North Dakota Laundrymen's association. At the meeting of the commission at Grand Forks he expressed his views plainly.

The recent reclassification of the express rates served as a blow to the laundry basket business, by which means at least half of the male population of North Dakota is furnished with clean shirts each week. The rates on laundry were in some cases doubled.

Hereafter many men who wish to wear clean shirts every morning will have to "pay the freight."

PRESIDENT WILSON SPEAKS

Attends Formal Opening of the American University.

Washington, May 28.—President Wilson and Secretaries Bryan and Daniels participated in the formal opening of the American university, the national Methodist Episcopal school located on the Potomac Heights overlooking the nation's capital.

The late President McKinley and former President Roosevelt laid cornerstones of the buildings for the university, which was projected twenty-five years ago by Bishop Hurst.

"Scholarship, it seems to me," President Wilson said in his address, "is the mastery, the exact mastery and comprehension of great bodies of knowledge; and the comprehension is more difficult than the mastery. It is much easier to acquire than it is to interpret and yet all knowledge is dead which is not interpreted. The vision of the scholar is worth more to the world than his industry."

CONGRESS TIRED; WANTS TO QUIT

Members Homesick and Anxious to Leave Capital.

FEW VACATIONS RECENTLY.

For Past Five Years Lawmakers Have Been Kept Nearly Continuously on the Job—Bill Passes House Appropriating Funds For Promotion of Aviation in the Army.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, May 28.—[Special.]—Only the senators and representatives and those who have been watching congress for many years past realize how continuously congress has been in session compared to former years. Heretofore in a term of congress covering two years the sessions generally occupied only about ten months, but since the 1st of December, 1908, congress has been in session pretty continuously.

The first session of the Sixtieth congress began in December, 1908, and lasted three months. Two weeks later President Taft called an extra session for the purpose of passing the tariff bill, and it remained in session until the first part of August. The next session began in December and lasted through June. Then there was a short session in the winter, followed by a special session of the Sixty-second congress, called in the first part of April, until the last part of August. The regular session began in December, 1911, and continued until the last part of August, 1912. There was a short session in the winter, followed by a special session of the Sixty-third congress, called by President Wilson in the first part of April, 1913, which lasted until the regular session in December. That regular session is the present, and no one can tell when it will end.

They Want to Go Home.

In view of the many months spent in Washington the members of congress are really tired and want to get home. They are more than homesick; they want to go home and find out what their people are thinking and talking about. They would like to have this opportunity of mingling with the people when there is no campaign in progress, which was not possible with the extra sessions of the Sixty-first, Sixty-second and Sixty-third congresses. This desire to get back among the people is not confined alone to the rank and file of members, but the leaders are equally anxious. For that reason the pressure is strong for an early adjournment.

Aviation in the Army.

There are times when the house of representatives gets right down to business. It passed a bill of great importance the other day, which added sixty men to the United States army list of officers, when one single objection would have stopped it. The bill was to create an aviation corps in the army, train men for aviation and to pay them extra for hazardous work in which they are engaged. If the senate thinks the same way the United States army will have an aviation corps, although at present it is fourteenth on the list of governments in the matter of aviation work, according to the expenditures, being ranked by Brazil, Spain, Greece, Bulgaria, Chile, Belgium and, besides, all of the great powers of Europe, which have gone into aviation extensively.

A Running Record.

A capital guide was showing a party of sightseers about the capitol building and stood them up in front of a clock in the senate wing. "That clock," said the guide, "is never allowed to run down. It has been running continuously for more than a quarter of a century. It has been running longer than anything in the United States, even longer than William Jennings Bryan."

Congress and Golf.

It is no unusual thing for both the senate and house to be without a quorum on big baseball days, but no doubt the fact that seven or eight senators and as many representatives engaged in a game of golf to test whether the senate or the house contained the best golfers is an innovation. The congressional golfers did not affect the business of congress, but their absence will no doubt cause a little comment. "Our consciences troubled us somewhat," said one member, "as we did not know but what we might be needed to make a quorum."

Garner Surprised Them.

For some time there has been pending in the committee on ways and means a bill which is intended to eliminate the coupons given with tobacco. There seemed to be no question about getting the bill out of the committee and putting it through the house. But one day the committee had a meeting and the bill was brought up. John Garner of Texas moved to postpone its consideration until next December, and his motion prevailed by 9 to 6. Naturally there was great surprise manifested, as Chairman Underwood and the Republican leaders supposed they had everything their own way. "How did you do it, John?" asked Gardner of Massachusetts. Garner merely grinned and remarked that he had worked his rabbit's foot.

They Like to Hear It.

Every pretty girl is aware of the fact, but no young man who mentions it to her will be censured.—Judge.

INDIAN CHIEF NOW 128 YEARS OLD

Noted Leader of the Chippewas Visits Minneapolis.

Minneapolis, May 28.—John Smith, or Wa-be-ne-gew-wes, for more than 100 years chief of the once powerful tribe of Chippewa Indians, who is 128 years old, as he reckons it, and whose existence, as a boy, 116 years ago, is vouched for by government records, is in Minneapolis from Cass Lake to see, for himself, before he dies, the great city that has risen in his lifetime where once primeval wilderness was unbroken. The last of the great Indian chieftains of the country, bent and shrunken by age, still is able to walk about, and all his faculties have been retained.

Seventy years ago, the old man, in the great battle at Red Lake, between the Sioux and Chippewa Indians, as fought, and for sixty years he was a warrior for his people in the combat for the hunting grounds. In the fall of 1845 he led his Chippewas to victory and they retreated to near where St. Cloud now stands.

In the great Indian uprising of the year 1862, the most historic warfare incident in Minnesota, he with other runners went north after the New Uln massacre to warn the white people of their danger. Other runners fled, pierced by Sioux arrows, but Wa-be-ne-gew-wes got through and his friendliness for the whites and his effort in their behalf mark a part of the history of that time.

ENVOYS MAKING RAPID PROGRESS

EARTH TREMORS ON ISTHMUS OF PANAMA

Reports Indicate No Damage Occurs to Canal.

Panama, May 28.—A severe earthquake shock was felt here, the disturbance lasting nearly half a minute. Reports from Gatun, Miraflores and Pedro Miguel indicated that no damage was done to the locks there.

The seismograph record indicated that the point of origin was within 100 miles to the southwest, the motion being from southwest to northeast and very strong. It was more vertical than lateral.

The earthquake caused much excitement along the canal, as the shock was of longer duration than that in October.

Washington, May 28.—Experts of the isthmian canal commission claim that no extensive injury to the Panama canal could be caused by any earthquake of record, not only on the isthmus, but on this hemisphere.

This was the gist of a memorandum opinion given by Judge Thomas C. Munger of the United States district court of Nebraska.

Judge Munger holds that the roads' affairs under the present operation are being managed in violation of the Sherman anti-trust act.

At the Park Theatre

Tonight the Park Theatre inaugurates its summer season of moving pictures at 5 and 10 cents. Programs of the latest offerings in the world of moving pictures will be presented and Manager E. A. Adams will do his best to please Brainerd audiences.

At the Columbia

Those who witnessed "The Last Days of Pompeii" saw the greatest moving picture ever exhibited for 10 cents. In every particular this picture defies comparison. It can be seen again tonight. Tomorrow the ever popular Mary Pickford will appear in "Tess of the Storm Country."

C. D. Johnson of Brainerd to Speak—Knipple's 12 Piece Orchestra to Play

Deerwood, May 28—The formal opening of Archibald park at Deerwood, situated on the shady shores of Serpent lake, will occur on Sunday afternoon and evening, May 31. The beautiful park will be formally opened to the public by an elaborate program of speeches and music, commencing at 3 o'clock in the afternoon and continuing during the afternoon and evening.

Charles A. Lindbergh, congressman of the sixth district, and C. D. Johnson, state senator, will speak. Music for the occasion will be furnished by Knipple's 12-piece orchestra, which has already been engaged to play at the 1914 Minnesota state fair. Many improvements have been made in the park in preparation for the season, and everybody is invited to come and enjoy a pleasant outing. All are urged to bring their picnic dinners and to stay all day. Special launch service will be provided by the Ingalls Motor Boat Co.
